Byrd Antarctic Stamp

Another Living American to be Honored by A Special Postage Stamp

Postmaster General Farley today announced that the Post Office Department will issue a special three-cent postage stamp in commemoration of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition. These stamps will be for use on letters mailed through the Little America post office, which is to be established at the base camp of the Expedition in the vicinity of the South Pole.

The new Little America stamp is being issued solely for use on mail matter of the Antarctic Expedition and will not be placed on sale at post offices for use on ordinary domestic mail. As the Post Office Department has no means of providing philatelic mail transportation to Little America other than through the facilities of the Byrd 1933 Antarctic Expedition, arrangements have been made with the Expedition to accept covers for mailing through the Little America post office, bearing appropriate postmark, at a service charge of 50 cents for each letter, exclusive of the postage rate of three cents.

Collectors desiring Little America cancellations may send the desired number of addressed covers under separate wrapper plainly marked "Byrd Antarctic Expedition, c/o Postmaster, Norfolk, Virginia", in time to be received not later than October 8, the sailing date of the Expedition from that port. These covers must be accompanied with a postal money order remittance of 53 cents for each cover, money order to be made payable to the Byrd Antarctic Expedition, Norfolk, Virginia. Postage stamps will not be accepted in payment.

After October 8, collectors desiring the Little America postmark must send all covers to the "Byrd Antarctic Expedition, c/o Postmaster, Washington, D. C.", from which point the covers will be forwarded to the Little America post office for postmarking and return. A money order remittance of 53 cents must accompany each cover, of course.

Provision is being made to have covers submitted after October 8, but not later than November 10, forwarded by regular mail steamers to Dunedin, New Zealand, in time to connect with the Expedition, before its departure from that point to Little America, about January 1, 1934. Covers taken with the Expedition to Little America will be dispatched on the supply ship returning to Dunedin and should reach addresses in the United States in the early Summer of 1934.

Covers will continue to be received by the Expedition Office in Washington, D. C., until about November 1, 1934, approximately the latest date mail can be forwarded to Dunedin, New Zealand, in time to reach the relief ship before its sailing for Little America to return the Expedition from the Antarctic. These covers will reach addressees approximately one year later than those carried to Little America on the first trip.

Stamp collectors desiring Little America stamps for collection purposes only may obtain same from the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., where they will be available at their face value of three cents starting October 9, 1933.

The new stamp will be identical in size and shape as Special Delivery stamps, 0.83 by 1.42 inches, arranged vertically, and will be surrounded by a narrow double line border. The color will be navy blue. Across the top of the stamp in solid Roman, arranged in two lines is the inscription, "Byrd Antarctic Expedition II". In the center of the stamp is a large geographic globe, the sides of which are partly hidden behind the border. Routes of the several Byrd flights are depicted by dotted lines with the dates thereof in solid Gothic. Proposed new flights to the Antarctic and the South Pole are also indicated. The position of the base camp is marked by a solid dark circle, with the wording "Little America" in solid Gothic extending parallel with the line of longitude extending West of the base. Within a circle of white ground and double line border in each lower corner is the numeral "3" in solid color. At the bottom of the stamp is a narrow horizontal panel with white ground containing the word "Cents" in solid Gothic. In a ribbon panel directly above are the words "U. S. Postage", also in solid Gothic lettering. A clouded effect, heavy below and lighter at the top, forms a background for the central globe.

Blue Eagle

Nira, Iowa, was made famous by the National Industrial Recovery Act and now we learn of another town that would become just as famous if it had a post office but a search of the Postal Guide fails to show an office listed at this place.

We refer to Blue Eagle, Nevada. It is said that this town was named by a Government surveyor about the time General Hugh S. Johnson was in his crib. About a half century ago a surveyor named it when he saw the likeness of a mighty eagle carved by nature in the mountain side above the little oasis settlement at the foot of Grand range on Nevada's eastern border. The blue haze of the mountain country draped it. The town's population is 13 now.

Kosciusko Stamp First Day at Five Cities

It was announced at the Post Office Department today that the special five-cent postage stamp in honor of General Thaddeus Kosciusko in recognition of his services to the American cause during the Revolutionary War and in connection with the 150th anniversary of the naturalization of the Polish General as an American citizen will be first placed on sale on October 13, 1933, at the post offices at Chicago, Boston, Detroit, Saint Louis, and Buffalo. It will be on sale at other post offices throughout the country as soon after October 13 as distribution will permit.

The stamp is of the regulation size, printed in blue. Surrounding the stamp is a narrow panel ruled diagonally, bordered by a single inner line with double lines along the outer margin. The likeness of General Kosciusko, modeled from a statue in Lafayette Park, Washington, D. C., appears at the right of the center with the top of the pedestal base resting in the lower right corner. In a horizontal line in the upper left portion of the stamp are the words "U. S. Postage" in dark Roman. Immediately below this inscription are the words "Five Cents" in solid Gothic lettering beneath which is a scroll-like ornament. In the space below is the name "Kosciusko" in solid Gothic with the dates "1783" and "1933", directly below, arranged in two lines. The denomination designation, "5c" is inclosed in a circular panel with light ground in the lower left corner. Back of this circle, extending across the lower part of the stamp and upward behind the statue, is a clouded effect.

For the benefit of stamp collectors, the Kosciusko commemorative stamp will be placed on sale at the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department, and the post office, Washington, D. C., on October 14, 1933. However, neither the Agency nor the Washington Post Office will prepare covers for mailing on this date.

Stamp collectors desiring first-day cancellations of the Kosciusko stamp may send a limited number of addressed covers, not to exceed a total of 25, to the postmaster at each of the five designated post offices, with a cash or postal money order remittance to exactly cover the value of the stamps required for affixing. Other postage stamps will positively not be accepted in payment. First-day covers should reach these post offices not later than October 11. Covers will be accepted from individual subscribers only, each to be properly and legibly addressed. Special care must be taken, when addressing covers to bear blocks of stamps, to allow sufficient clear space for the stamps and postmark impression. Compliance can not be made with unusual requests, such as for the affixing of stamps bearing plate numbers or for the irregular placing of the stamps on the covers, etc.

Requests for a supply of uncanceled stamps of the new commemorative issue must not be included with orders for first-day covers. Such stamps when desired for mailing purposes should be purchased at the local post office. Stamps of selected quality needed strictly for collection use may be obtained on mail orders to the Philatelic Agency, Post Office Department.

UNITED STATES—Dropped Perforations. Periodically we receive a block of stamps from some reader calling our attention to a missing perforation on some current stamp, and asking that we note same in this column. While such items may find a place in the collection of the owner, we do not feel that sufficient importance is attached to this matter as to justify noting here. Neither do we feel that the time will ever come in which such things as missing perforations will find a place in any of the standard catalogs, other than is now the case, where an entire row has been missed.

AUSTRIA—Readers will kindly note that the recent "WIPA" stamps were perf. 12, on the special exhibition sheets, and perf. 12½ on the sheets of 25. In our haste to place this sheet in our own collection, we did not measure it and only recently discovered this in Scott's Monthly Journal.

BAHRAIN ISLANDS—Oct. 29, 1932, we heralded this stamp and we now learn that the first stamp has appeared. Contemporary stamps of India, overprinted "BAHRAIN". Wmk. mult. stars:

A60—2a. vermilion
(A. F. Turner, London, Eng.)

BRAZIL—This country joins the procession of Columbus 441st Anniversary issues, but is far more conservative than, unless other values are to follow. Printed in sheets of 100, typographed, large transverse oblong format. Wm. Scott's #222, perf. 12½:

200r. carmine
(R. Roberts)

DENMARK—Supplementing our notes of last week, the stamps are on unwmk. paper, perf. 12½. Colors follow: 15c. red; 20c. gray; 25c. blue; 30c. orange; 35c. violet; and 40c. yellow green.

(R. Roberts)

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC—Type of 1924-27 issue, unwmk. perf. 10:

A26—50c. gray green & black

FRANCE—Another value in the current set. The 2c. of the same design is just now appearing in certain quarters, tho we noted its issuance March 4th.

Quantities issued are noted in parenthesis after each value. 2c. blue (15,000); 6c. orange (15,000); 10c. yellow (15,000); 15c. violet (10,000); 50c. red (5,000) and 1L. green (4,000).

ITALY—A new set of postage stamps is reported to have been issued, tho to date none have been seen. The design is said to show the Italian flags bowing before an altar, on which stands an open bible with the words "EVANGELIUM" very marked. By its side is a plain cross, and not a Crucifix.

(Philatelic Magazine)

LATAKIA—Two of the color changes, together with the air mail noted in our issue of Aug. 12th, for Syria, have appeared overprinted for this territory:

MONACO—Air Mail Provisional—Undermentioned overprinted with an aeroplane at left top corner and surcharged with a new value at the bottom right corner, thus covering over the original value in both places:

A15—1.50fr. on 5fr. green & rose
(R. Roberts)
(A. F. Turner)

NEWFOUNDLAND—Mr. Philip A. Lydston, of Portsmouth, N. H., calls our attention to the fact that we were in error in our chronicle of Sept. 9th, when we stated that the surcharge covered the entire block. The overprint was complete on each stamp, but no larger pieces than blocks of four were obtainable. We thank Mr. Lydston for his correction.

ST. LUCIA—The following stamps have just been received in very distinctly different shades than previous supplies:

A12—2p. pale gray
A12—6p. grayish lilac
A11—1s. bright red brown

K. M. GIERHART, BALTIMORE, OHIO

Well, wrong again as usual. MISSISSIPPI is in the Bi-Centennial catalog. It is on the upper half of page 39. But it is not listed in the INDEX nor is it noted at the top of the page as the rest of the states are but its there just the same. In glancing thru the OHIO section I note a Reynoldsville, O., this is in error and means REYNOLDSBURG. Several places I have noted where the catalog calls for U-82 which is a handstamp, but in reality I think they mean U-122 the metal handstamp. This can be excused, because proper illustrations were not at hand when the catalog was started. U-122 is similar to U-82 but the latter is much larger. Also I have recently received some Bi-Cent and Century of Progress items from Humbolt, Tenn. They were in U-120 but the catalog says U-121. These things will have to be ironed out in the next edition.

Several fine and interesting lots have come in within the last few days. One from L. G. Williams of Bradford, Pa. 5c Olympic, Ridgeway, Pa. U-120. 5c Olympic, Logansport, Ind. U-53 and a 5c Olympic, Erie, Pa. with the upper bar missing. An 8c Bi-Cent from Lansdale, Pa., in that large handstamp type reading down, and without bars or lines. I think this is the same old handstamp just disintegrating. He also showed me the much talked about MUUNI error in Mount Vernon, N. Y. plate. Well it is no error at all just a good healthy break. Take the word OUNT and slice enough off the top to remove the top of the O and cross bar of the T, a little off the U and N does not effect them, and you have a perfect UUNI. The M was not touched and was a little higher than the rest, also the bar above these letters was missing which further proves a break. Mr. Williams also showed me the 1c and 3c C of P. from Saratoga Springs, N. Y. in U-73 and a 1c C of P from Perth Amboy, N. J. U-121 down.

Mrs. Alta Schaffer of San Antonio, Tex. showed me a 3c C of P, from Albert Lee, Minn. U-48 down, also a 1c ord. from Yoakum, Tex. U-122 and a 1½c front view Harding from Bentonville, Ark. U-121. Mr. Wm. J. Hager of St. Louis shows me a 3c C of P from Chicago in a type the catalog describes as similar to U-54 but smaller. And Dale Dorgeloh of Anamosa, Ia. shows me the first Arizona Century of Progress item, it is from Holbrook in U-120 down. A 1c item.

NEWTON HIGHLANDS, MASS.

There is a missing period on the U-14 plate for the horizontal stamps for Pittsburgh, Pa. It comes on the 89th stamp. And I never have been able to find a missing period on Ft. Wayne, Ind. U-10 plate altho the catalog says there is one.

John P. Barnes shows me a vertical pair of 4c perf. 10x10 1923 issue from Hartford, Conn. in U-1 inverted. The top stamp a perfect double the bottom just a single impression. And John Finley of Chicago shows me a 5c Bi-Cent from what I take to be Southland, Tex. in U-121. No such a town is mentioned in either the Bi-Cent or regular catalog. How about it Texas fans?

So here is your NRAs. From John Wilson of Jamaica, N. Y., Upper Darby, Pa. in U-121 nor. or across, and that means the beautiful little one line electro is no more. Dolgeville, N. Y. U-53 up; Wyandotte, Mich. U-121 down and I have had come thru the paper mill the 6c ord. and 3c Stuart from here, same type; Slatersville, R. I. U-121 up; Carthage, N. Y. U-120 across; Wayland, N. Y. similar to U-54 across; Macomb, Ill. U-122 down; McCook, Nebr. large handstamp type regularly used there, across; Westgate, Pa. U-68 but smaller, down; Johnstown, N. Y. U-121, up.

There are three distinct metal handstamp types. For those of you who can distinguish them but cannot tell which U-type they belong to, here goes a little explanation. U-121 is the tall thin condensed letters, U-120 is the same style type but expanded letters, and U-122 is larger than either and has serifs on the letters.

THAT $100 PRIZE

Doubtless all of our readers are interested in knowing to whom the three prizes, totaling $100 in cash are to be given. Altho the contest was closed August 31st, it has taken considerable time to get a thorough and complete check of the exact number of subscriptions secured by each of the leading contestants so that a correct list might be published and the prizes awarded to the winners.

This list has now been completed and without further comment we list below the names of the first ten persons on the list of contestants who secured the greatest number of subscriptions. The first prize of $50 cash going to the first name, $30 cash to the second and $20 cash to the third.

Checks for these sums have been mailed to the winners.

Here are the names and the figures following them are the total number of subscriptions which they turned in to our office prior to August 31st.

Walter Poppenger, Akron, O.	122
Fred C. Mudgett, Santa Ana, Calif.	36
Carrie E. Johnson, Washington, D. C.	31
Columbus Philatelic Club, Columbus	29
Green Bay Stamp Co., Green Bay, Wisc.	28
W. L. Siddle, Birmingham, Ala.	22
Member No. 1601, Atlanta, Ga.	20

Thos. H. Houghton, Methuen, Mass. 16
D. E. Chichester, Lancaster, Pa. 14
J. H. Conzelmann, Syracuse, N. Y. 14

Besides these names we have a very large list of names of subscribers who have assisted in this subscription contest by getting friends to subscribe and there are hundreds on the list who have to their credit from two or three to as many as ten or twelve subscriptions.

We greatly appreciate the interest and help that has been given by our readers to make this contest a successful one and we hope that within a short time we may find it desirable to have a further subscription contest which will give an opportunity for a greater number of readers to participate in the prizes that will be offered.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Among the great daily papers of the large cities of America, there is always one that stands out as the leader. Such a paper is notable in many ways but one of its chief claims to fame is its classified advertising pages. Somehow or other the buyer of small advertising space usually knows which paper among all will bring him the greatest returns for his investment. Possibly this is true because the small user of advertising space, having but little money to spend for advertising, must learn to spend it where it will bring him the greatest returns. This is not true of some users of space. They spend it as their fancy leads them, they slap in a page or a half page just because they think it is necessary that they advertise. Too few of the users of display space actually know what they are getting in the way of real returns for their money, but not so with the user of Classified Advertising. This man must get results for his capital is limited and if you will watch the various papers you will soon learn which one is bringing the most in returns for it is that paper that carries the most in classified advertising. Our classified columns have shown a constant growth and are now second to none in volume of advertising. There is a reason.

Walter Quintance, Upper Sandusky, Ohio

1934 Stamp Catalogue

It's green this year, a handsome book which appeals to us more and more in the new large size page style and it's much more convenient and handy to use.

It never has been our idea to collect stamps with a view to how much they go up or down in the catalogue. We collect them because we like the game and what they catalog at this year or next year has never influenced us as to what to buy or what not to buy so that those who want to know about prices will have to get a copy and look for themselves.

In some cases they are up and in some down. Any argument as to the justice of any price can probably find as many supporters on one side as on the other. It's not what it catalogues at that make so much difference as what you can buy or sell it for.

Everyone is predicting a big year for stamp collecting and if predictions are correct there will doubtless be a lot of put-it-offs who will be looking for a dealer who has a catalog to sell before the first of the year.

We learn that the animal on the North Borneo stamp is not a Bull Durham Bull as it has been labeled but is a "Banteng, semi-wild Ox".

The 10c 1847 drops from $35 to $30, yet you can still get handsome copies for $20 to $25.

The current $5.00 stamp drops to $1.75 and handsome copies are still available at $1.25 to $1.50 so catalog prices will not affect these stamps.

The rare lake shade in the Yorktown stamp is not mentioned, a variety that appears as rare as the red violet in the 3c Victory stamp and certainly a stamp that is as lake as the 2c 1890, yet it finds no space in the catalog while heaps of other shadier shades are listed.

Perhaps the Specialized which is due October 2 may carry a listing on this new rarity.

Akron-Canton Picnic

An extensive account of the joint picnic of the Akron and Canton Stamp Clubs has come to hand and it is to be regretted that we do not have space to tell all about this big annual frolic. Needless to state it was a day devoted to fun yet some of the boys and girls could not stay away from stamps long enough to give a day to play.

The Picnic, which is an annual affair held at Hoover Camp in North Canton attracts collectors from all parts of Northeastern Ohio and Pennsylvania. Delegations from Cleveland, Youngstown, New Philadelphia, Warren, Pittsburgh and Sharon were in attendance.

The principal event of the day was a tug of war between the two clubs and Canton out pulled Akron but the Akron boys say "just wait till they get to Akron in December and we'll show them something."

The Arthur Hind Collection of United States Stamps

Notes by Charles J. Phillips

THE GENERAL ISSUES

Mr. Arthur Hind had a great preference for unused stamps and as a general rule only included used copies in his collection, where it was not likely that he would be able to secure unused.

In the following list all the items I note are unused unless reported to the contrary.

only lacks being carried on the dirigible in this parade.

A. J. Scanlon of Lakewood, N. J., writes that the MACON is scheduled to leave the Lakehurst Naval Air Station on or before October 20th. and that the Lakewood Stamp Society will have cachet for that event. It was expected that the activities of the ship from that station would furnish more events worthy of a cachet, but the Welcome to Balbo has been the only one. However the possible Re-commission of the Los Angeles or the De-commission of the Station if occurring will be commemorated. Collectors having an excess of covers with either Mr. Scanlon or the Society may have them returned by writing them.

DePinedo

Mr. Sussman also sends cover postmarked Sept. 2d, bearing printed cachet commemorating the ill-fated take-off of the Italian aviator.

Historical and Other Cachets

The West Coast Air Mail Society acting in behalf of the Goodyear Co. is sponsoring a cachet to be applied to air mail covers to be carried on the Goodyear Blimp "Volunteer" on a Greetings Flight to the U. S. S. Macon on her arrival at Sunnvale, Cal., about Oct. 20th. Covers must be unfilled, air mail rate, and space at lower left hand corner for the printed cachet and sent to A. N. Brown, 270 Tehama St., San Francisco, Cal., to reach him not later than Oct. 15th.

Ken Tallmadge, 902 W. Saginaw, Lansing, Mich., offers to handle covers for dedication of the New Post Office there in the near future; for the visit of Amelia Earhart, Oct. 28th, and any other nearby events. He reports that 1000 covers were mailed Sept. 10th, on the F.F. over A.M.M. 9 with Chamber of Commerce cachet.

Walter W. Miller sent notice of Wiley Post's visit to Madison, Wis., too late for publication.

J. W. Cunningham, 2002 Jackson St., Monroe, La., is holding covers for Post Office dedication in October. Stamp Collectors Club is sponsoring this cachet.

O. A. Smith, U. S. Naval Sta., Great Lakes, Ill., says that if collectors desire cancellation on Navy Day, from that office that covers may be sent to him.

So, I want to hear from some precancel collectors. In order of receipt will offer them some nice stuff at a bargain.

Nelson Thor Thorson

The American Numismatic Association at its recent convention in Chicago, elected to the presidency of that Association Nelson Thor Thorson of Omaha, Nebraska.

Mr. Thorson is a man of many hobbies. For the past thirty-five years he has been active as a collector. His field is not limited to coins but includes medals, paper money, stamps, autographs, old prints, autographed photos, antique smoking pipes, rare books, first editions and a very large library of books on Numismatics. Antique jewelry, firearms and Indian relics also come within his scope.

To enumerate his many activities, both business and social, would require a column of space. Perhaps his greatest interest lies in his publication work, he being owner and publisher of the Omaha-Posten, a newspaper now 50 years old and which he has owned for the past 25 years.

Mr. Thorson was born in Sweden in 1881, came to America in 1888 when his parents settled at Lincoln, Nebraska. In 1898 he entered business in Omaha and is now one of its outstanding citizens.

Coin Men To Meet

The annual convention of the Ohio State Numismatic Society will be held in Columbus, the week end of October 14, 15, 16 at the Neil House. About 50 cases of exhibits will be on display. There will be an auction sale of about 1000 lots of rare coins and paper money. This sale will be in two sessions, Saturday evening and Monday morning. The annual banquet will be held Sunday evening.

All coin collectors as well as stamp collectors are invited to attend and further information can be had by addressing Dr. J. M. Henderson, 51 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio.

Kosciusko, Miss.

When the new Kosciusko stamps are available collectors will want copies mailed from a postoffice of that name and an examination of the Postal Guide reveals a single town by such a name and this is Kosciusko, Mississippi.

Who will be the first to rush covers bearing Kosciusko stamps to this town for mailing.

PENALTY AND PREMIUM

Until Oct. 15 I shall undertake to supply any used European stamp cataloging up to 5c as follows: Cat. $.02 at 1/2c ea.; cat. $.03 and $.04 at 1c ea.; cat. $.05 at 2c ea. For each stamp I cannot supply will substitute one from same country, cat. 10c or over. Each order amounting to $2.00 will be franked with comp. 1926 Nibelungen issue. One of the most impressive words we have heard of for a long time and expresses the situation of the United States just at this time. It has no place in any dictionary at this moment but it should be there. This word as we copied it from the wall of a stamp dealer is KWUITYUR-BELLYAKIN.

And still the new dealers emerge from their cocoons, as it were. The latest is the Centapack Company at 330 Fourth Avenue, corner 23rd Street. Incredible as it may seem they sell a packet of 15 different foreign stamps at ONE CENT. We spoke to one of the members of the firm and the method of doing business is to our mind novel to say the least.

The Frigidaire salesmen have been overlooking a bet. The New York Sun states that the St. Petersburg, Florida, postoffice keeps its stock of postage stamps in a refrigerator so that their stamp stock will not stick together due to the hot weather. From now on all up to date postoffices will have to have their individual refrigerators.

An example of the politeness of a clerk in the postoffice. A man who looked foreign to us purchased a postcard but wrote the address up side down. He went to the stamp window and wanted to buy another one. The clerk seeing what this man did handed him another new postcard taking back the wrongly written one. What the clerk will do with the card he took back we do not know but we think it a "good deed". Maybe he was a graduate boy scout.

One of the most likeable of the new crop of dealers is H. Moriarity, Jr., of 99 Nassau Street. From a very small beginning he has increased his stock and at the present time he is in a position to fill the great majority of wants of United States stamps of which he specializes. His new 1934 price list has just been issued.

The little baby in arms murmured "ticky". Father and mother wondered what he was cooing about. At length when mother picked up the little tot she found the young hopeful stuck to a sheet of father's stamps for it was summer. And junior all the time meant to say sticky in his own language.
